ROOSEVELT'S OPINION.

Chicago Tribune.
Dr. Parkhurst thinks "Roosevelt is unsafe." Mr. Roosevelt is more generous. He thinks Dr. Parkhurst is not at all dangerous.

IS A PROHIBITIONIST.

We have refrained from saying anything concerning the remarks of the Rev. Compton concerning the disfranchising of the negro, but as the Democrats seem to be getting so much comfort out of it, and all the more because the preacher says he is a Republican, we want to offer the suggestion that Rev. Compton has been voting the Prohibition ticket for years, and that the suggestion of his being a Republican is more to lend color to his remark than to give weight to his observation.

A GENTLE HINT.

A would-be business man who is indiscreet enough to say such a thing as that attributed to a slim-faced merchant hereabouts, deserves just about the run of business he has, or perhaps less, which he will surely have if he pursues his present course. He will not only run short on business, but he will have fewer friends than he has heretofore counted on his list. When a man goes out of his way to show his littleness, it is more noticeable than if he kept his mouth shut.

MAY BE FRAUGHT WITH BLESSING.

These days of temporary cessation in business activity may be fraught with valuable blessings not now so much as dreamed of. A little financial pinch just now may make us reflect over how much of it we can stand. If we think we could weather four years of it, loaded with a double back-ache, self-cocking charge of Democratic incompetency, then we must feel pretty staunch; if, however, a few months of the mild kind is all we want, we had better "stand pat" and vote for Teddy and protection to home industries.

Senator Charles W. Swisher was a business visitor in Wheeling yesterday. He says he has not been giving politics much attention recently owing to the illness of two of his children, both now being afflicted with typhoid fever. He was allowed to name the Marion county delegation to the Wheeling State convention and said the party is in fine shape in his county, having less trouble politically, he believed, than any other county in West Virginia. Mr. Swisher still retains the fullest confidence that he will be nominated for Secretary of State. "I am more certain of it than ever before," he said, "and I have good reasons for the faith that is in me. I flatter myself I know something of politics and if I didn't think I was certain of success I would not remain a candidate. You will notice that the votes will be on my side, July 12."—To-day's Wheeling Intelligence.

The Hon. John W. Mason, who is still presiding over the Second Judicial district, comprising the counties of Marion, Monongalia and Harrison, was to-day at Morgantown nominated for Judge of the new Fourteenth district, to become such in fact on and after the first day of January next, and to consist of the two counties of Marion and Monongalia. Judge Mason received the honor without opposition, all recognizing his fitness for the position, and all knowing that any opposition to him would be futile. Judge Mason has made a fine record on the bench, being regarded one of the State's ablest jurists. His election in November can be confidently predicted, as the Republican majority should be at least 5,000 this year.

We regret to learn of the death of E. W. Staunton, of Charleston, as will a number of Fairmonters who knew him well. Mr. Staunton was one of the leading Republicans of the State and the acknowledged head of the Republican organization of Kanawha county. For some time he had been Clerk of the County Court of that county. He will be missed socially and his place will be hard to fill politically.

Marion county came forward with a response and Gaston act, and dis- State delegation between and Teter. That county State for Secretary of State of Hon. Chas. W. Mail.

The State of Oregon gave no uncertain sound yesterday, having gone Republican by a large majority.

John P. Elkin is being talked of as the successor of Senator Quay, and if ability is what Gov. Pennypacker is looking for Mr. Elkin will be the man.

TO THE TOMBS

HANNAH ELIAS WAS REMANDED TO THE TOMBS TO-DAY—DECLINED TO GIVE HER PEDIGREE.

NEW YORK, June 8.—Hannah Elias, the octocon who was arrested last night, charged with extorting $700,000 from the millionaire John R. Platt, was arraigned in court this morning. On motion of counsel, the case was adjourned until Friday at 2 P. M. Bail was fixed at $50,000 and Mrs. Elias was remanded to the tombs.

The District Attorney said, in asking for the high bail: "This woman is accused of extorting $700,000 from an old man and she told me herself that she had gotten $400,000 from him."

Magistrate Ommen said that in view of all the circumstances and because of the large amounts of money involved he would fix the bail at $50,000.

Mrs. Elias listened to the proceedings attentively. When asked for her pedigree before going to her cell in the tombs she declined on the advice of counsel.

NEED INSTRUCTION.

Eight years of prosperity make people magnanimous; indeed they become so large hearted that they almost forget the sting of darker days. The belief becomes somewhat prevalent that things go about as well under one administration as another, and that there is nothing in politics anyway. These too liberal hearted folk need chastisement, and if they persist in their magnanimity they will get it, but we will all have to suffer together for their lack of foresight, if they allow themselves to be betrayed by a kiss and vote the Democratic ticket. But there are two classes of voters which should be looked after with especial care, namely, the young men who scarcely remember the distressing period of Democracy's last reign, and the foreigners, who have never lived in this country when it was under Democratic control. These two classes should be carefully reminded that this country was not always the prosperous and happy land which they have known and enjoyed for the past few years, and that the enactment of Democratic policies and principles into laws would make the smoke stacks of our mills become the nesting place of the swallows and the mine openings a resort for groundhogs, polecats and foxes.

Intermediate Court Proceedings.

The special term of Intermediate Court is still in session. Judge Ramage on the bench. The Court was busy yesterday and to-day. The following cases have been disposed of: In the case of Zack G. Morgan guardian, vs. Brooks T. Morgan, the plaintiff was given authority to use nearly $300 of the defendant's money for the education of the latter.

T. M. Calvert, guardian, was given permission to sell a lot at Mannington and put the proceeds on interest for his ward, Mabel H. Calvert.

Joseph Hugus, guardian vs. Georgia Price et al, plaintiff was given permission to lease for oil and gas 39 1/2 acres in Lincoln district.

Charles W. Hawkins, guardian, vs. Gertrude and Anna Bigford, plaintiff given power to use part of pension money for clothing, etc., for infants, Marie Robery, defendant's interest in oil and gas allowed sold to South Penn Oil Company.

David J. Dalton et al. vs. John Dalton et al., commissioner appointed for the partitioning of lands in Mannington district; if that cannot be done, to report to Court and land will be sold.

JOHN D.

Will Foot Half of the Bill.

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., June 8.—The church-going people of Pocantico Hills are rejoicing over the gift from John D. Rockefeller.

The union church services which were held Sunday afternoon had to be abandoned because the expenses were so heavy. A member approached Mr. Rockefeller, who heard his story, and said: "I'll make up your shortage, or in the future put me down for half the expenses."

The church services will be resumed at once.

I have some good bargains on Fairmont avenue. Call and see me. H. H. Lanham.

I have some fine lots in Morrow Place yet. H. H. Lanham.

NOT SAFE

FOR UNION MEN IN THE CRIPPLE CREEK DISTRICT—TWENTY-FOUR DEPORTED MINERS REACH DENVER.

DENVER, Col., June 8.—The twenty-four deported union miners from the Cripple Creek district, exiles of the serious riots in that section, arrived in Denver about midnight on a special train over the Denver and Rio Grande. In the rear of the car stood nine guards armed with shot guns and army rifles, who had been deputized to conduct them to Denver from the gold camp. The miners were unarmed. Nearly all were penniless. The men were met by about forty of the delegates to the convention of the Western Federation of Miners, and were taken to a restaurant.

The miners declare that the Cripple Creek district is no longer safe for union men. "Any one who has an enemy," said one, "had better get out, because it is impossible for him to be protected there now."

GOMPERS

GOES AFTER GOVERNOR PEABODY IN DRASTIC STYLE. HE SAYS THE GOVERNOR IS BLAMEWORTHY.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, denounces in vigorous terms the action of the Colorado authorities for their methods in dealing with the labor troubles in that State. He says that the governor is the one man above all others responsible for the reign of terror now prevailing in the Cripple Creek district and characterizes him as a flagrant violator of civil laws and human rights. "Governor Peabody," said Mr. Gompers, "has done more by his acts to provoke bitterness than all other elements in Colorado combined. If he acts the outlaw himself, the highest officer of the State, is the present unfortunate situation surprising?"

As for the recent dynamite outrage, Mr. Gompers had only words of denunciation and said that he could not conceive that it was the work of any organized body of men.

"I cannot believe that such an act of lawlessness was the result of any pre-arranged plans of any body of miners. It must have been an individual act."

MARTIAL LAW

THE CRIPPLE CREEK DISTRICT IS NOW UNDER CONTROL OF THE AUTHORITIES.

VICTOR, Col., June 8.—The Cripple Creek district was officially put under martial law early to-day.

Adjutant General Bell arrived at 1:45 o'clock in a special train from Denver, accompanied by five officers. He at once assumed command, and caused the posting of a proclamation in various parts of the district.

The proclamation states that because of a class of lawless men and the fact that murders and rioting have taken place, and because lives and property are in constant danger, it is considered expedient to resume martial law. The paper is signed by acting Governor Warren.

POLITICAL LEADER STAUNTON DEAD.

WAS THE DOMINANT LEADER IN THE "HOG COMBINE" THAT CONTROLLED KANAWHA COUNTY.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., June 8.—E. W. Staunton, aged 40 years, county clerk of Kanawha county, and head of the Republican machine of the county, known as "The Hog Combine," died yesterday afternoon. He had been ill about a week with pneumonia.

Mr. Staunton, who was the son of Dr. Staunton, a prominent physician here, was married about fifteen years ago to Miss Buffington, of Huntington, who survives him. For several years Mr. Staunton has been in ill health, but after being treated by an eminent specialist he regained his former vigor, and resumed his activity in Republican politics. He was the dominant leader in the "Hog Combine," and in the recent bout in that organization it was the Staunton-Dawson wing which won out.

S. L. Watson, et al. have entered suit in chancery against H. G. Bowles et al. The plaintiffs are represented by Attorneys Meredith, Arnett and Powell.

I have a good saloon that will be sold quick at a bargain. H. H. Lanham.

JUDGE MASON

WAS NOMINATED TO SUCCEED HIMSELF IN THE FOURTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT—THE CONVENTION WAS A LOVE FEAST.

The Fourteenth Judicial district convention was held at Morgantown this morning. The meeting, which was held in the Opera House, was an harmonious one, with a full attendance of delegates, and was witnessed by several hundred spectators.

W. S. Meredith, of this city, in an eloquent address, nominated Hon. John W. Mason to succeed himself as judge of the Circuit Court in the Fourteenth Judicial district. The speech was received by cheers, and Judge Mason's name brought forth rounds of applause and his nomination was made unanimous.

Messrs. Meredith, Baker and Lazelle were appointed by Chairman Geo. C. Sturgiss as a committee to bring forth the Judge. He accepted the nomination, and in a neat little speech thanked the delegates. Frank Cox was indorsed for the Supreme Court judgeship, and his speech of acceptance was listened to with interest.

A judicial committee, composed of W. S. Meredith, M. L. Hutchinson and J. W. Gregg, was appointed by the chair.

Attorney Allison S. Fleming, of this city, acted as secretary of the convention.

A LEARNED FILIPINO.

Chief Judge of the Islands Is Entertained in America.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 8.—Judge Arellano, Chief Justice of the Philippine Islands, was to-day the guest of honor at a luncheon given him by Judge Charles A. Willard, also of the Supreme Bench of the Philippines.

Judge Arellano is a native, on his first trip outside the islands. While in this country he will visit Yale, where the degree of doctor of civil law will be conferred on him. He will leave the city Tuesday in company with Judge Willard for Washington.

After visiting Yale, Judge Arellano will go to St. Louis. He has been chosen to represent the Philippines in the International Association of Lawyers. Later he will visit Europe and return to the Philippines by way of the Suez canal.

BODY IDENTIFIED.

Man Found in Box Car Proves to Be a Citizen of Fayette County.

CHARLESTON, June 7.—The identity of the man who was found murdered in a box car on the Coal &amp; Coke road here the first of June has been established as L. T. Cooper, of Lookout, Fayette county. The identification was made by Squire Bright, who formerly lived at Lookout, and who talked to Cooper here the day preceding the murder. A microscopic examination of the name on the coat revealed that it was L. T. Cooper, instead of Cook, as was at first supposed.

Although Titt, the man charged with the crime, protests he does not know the man he was with the night of the murder, it is known that Titt knew Cooper well. Evidence against Titt grows stronger daily.

BIG VICTORY.

Republicans Swept Oregon By Very Large Majority.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 7.—That the Republicans scored an overwhelming victory yesterday is being made more apparent as the count comes in. Returns from isolated counties are coming in slowly. Congressman Binger Herrman has been re-elected in the First district with a majority of 7,000, while J. N. Williamson, Republican in the Second district, rolled up a majority of 10,000.

The next legislature will be Republican by a large majority and the Republicans were elected to most of the county offices.

Dr. Swartz was retained as principal and all the teachers who applied were re-elected. Of these Miss Daisy Shambaugh was re-elected in mathematics and physics; Miss Dosia White, intermediate instructor, and Miss Cora Atcheson, musical instructor.

Miss Alice Ridgely, of the musical department of the West Liberty Normal School was selected as vocalist.

Mrs. Wilson was retained as matron.

The finances of the institute are not quite as encouraging as they were last year, but splendid, considering the conditions there the past year, on account of smallpox and scarlet fever.

President S. F. Reed presided over the sessions and H. D. Boughner, secretary, acted in his official capacity.

The new board has not yet organized and, of course, the officers of the board for the ensuing year have not been elected.

In another place in to-day's issue will be found the card of Dr. Jas. E. Magee, the veterinary surgeon and dentist. He came here from Uniontown, Pa., where he and his father had an extensive practice.
